V5.8.1. Huawei Modem Unlocker V5.8.1 Huawei.Q: Making a datagridview disappear when the form is closed Currently I have a DataGridView that is used to input some information to a database in VB.Net. What I need to do now is make a "clear all" button that will hide the data in the DataGridView. How can I do this? The form is just a blank form with a button on it that says "Add information". Any help would be greatly appreciated! A: Call the Clear() or ClearAll() method. On the button click event, you would call the appropriate method. DataGridView1.Clear()
DataGridView1.ClearAll() Q: How can we say "nice to meet you"? I am learning English for one year now and I started to think about my grammar. A friend of mine told me that he doesn't like to say "Nice to meet you" when we meet a person for the first time. What do you think? A: Both with and without the "to" would be grammatically correct. The "to" is not really required in this situation. So it would be: Nice to meet you Nice to meet you, ...or, if you wanted to say more: Nice to meet you, I'm Davis. Nice to meet you, I'm Davis. We need to get together. A group of Phish fans on Tuesday alleged that the jam band was performing at tonight
