Customize toolbar. You can customize the toolbar, the notes organizer, the calendar, and the layout of the notes window. Instant messaging. You can send personal and group text messages and memos. You can also create chat notes for instant messaging. Keyboard shortcuts. You can assign keyboard shortcuts to actions. "Before you start using iQ-Notes, you can decide if you want to use the hierarchical notes or the flat list notes. This is because you can create and edit the notes in a different manner according to how the notes are organized. Moreover, you can create notes in the notes organizer, i.e. in different sections, and then you can use the notes for each section. You can also save notes and re-open them later. iQ-Notes offers you the opportunity to create notes in view."
