What's new:

Offers Televised Leg Waxing Competitions EN ERNERSKI, 25 April, 2015 - Enerski, a Swedish multinational energy services company and the market leader in the area of electric stations, announced the formation of a brand new, international television show, which will be televised on the CBS shows, The Price Is Right and Wheel Of Fortune, on May 10th 2015 at 8pm ET/PT. International director of programming and new shows at CBS, Craig Markon, commented: "The CBS Price Is Right TV show has been named in an exclusive list of 10 TV programs that have conquered the hearts of America. This will be the second time we produce the international version of the Price Is Right, having previously worked with the BBC on Unwrapped. Their product engineering team has had massive success with the product tests as a US winner. That global experience combined with our CBS programming pedigree makes this one exciting project. Burt Williams, Sr. VP of TV Programming and D-day analyst for CBS said: "We can not wait to once again produce a television show that puts our winners in the running for a prize that you can actually play for. We are always looking to find a show that is extremely entertaining for our viewers and we must say that 'The Price Is Right' television show is a winner in every sense of the word." The International Price Is Right show will be produced by CBS for the retail marketer Enerski with the format contract signed with the Swedish station TV4. Enerski's general manager and business development, Michael Yuldashev said: "Each year, we find more and more ways to integrate Enerski into global business in emerging markets, including the USA and the UK. Having already worked with CBS on a half-dozen for the US market, we are thrilled to produce the segment that will air on TV4." The show will utilize Enerski's unique system of one-on-one systems designed to target specific customer segments. American hosts Nate and Matt will host the contest and will be joined by winning contestants chosen from a Talent and Audience search. About the show: Beginning May 10, at 8PM ET on CBS, the Price Is Right television show, hosted by PricelsRight.com's representative, host and America's most instantly recognizable game show franchise creator Monty Hall, made its largest-ever
