The company also jumped into the 2019 iPhone update cycle by introducing the iPhone SE2. The latest iPhone SE2 has a 5.4-inch display, a new color option, as well as more storage options. The company released four new color variants of the iPhone SE2: Space Grey, Gold, Silver, and Rose Gold. The Rose Gold model is especially interesting in that it includes a limited edition Rose Gold screen protector that costs $49.99. In addition to the new colors, the iPhone SE2 offers 12GB and 16GB models, instead of the 8GB and 16GB options on the iPhone SE. However, the iPhone SE2's starting price remains at $399, while the iPhone SE started out at $349. The iPhone SE2 also features Apple's A13 Bionic chipset, 6GB of RAM, a 3D Touch sensor, and an upgraded rear camera. iPhone SE2 details: 5.4-inch Retina HD display with True Tone technology 12GB or 16GB of storage A13 Bionic chip 3D Touch 12MP rear camera with True Tone flash and Portrait mode 6MP front camera Waterproofing and a new glass back IP67 water resistance rating Apple Pay support Apple-designed EarPods No headphone jack Fast charge and wireless charging Now playing: Watch this: iPhone SE2 review: The smartphone you'll be disappointed... The iPhone SE2 is available for preorder today through Apple's online and retail stores, and also through AT&T, Verizon, Sprint, T-Mobile, and a few other carriers.
