Pelosi made the comment in November while speaking with Wisconsin newspaper the Oshkosh Northwestern about the Affordable Care Act. The video, which has been posted on the website of the left-leaning media outlet, has been viewed more than 65,000 times. ADVERTISEMENT "It's something he could take credit for or not take credit for, depending on whether he wants to," Pelosi said about President George W. Bush. "But he really didn't do the kind of job that the Constitution asked him to do with regard to making sure the markets are fair and sound, that we have a sound dollar, that we have a strong nation and no deficits." The comment drew praise from progressives, including Sen. Al Franken Alan (Al) Stuart FrankenGOP Senate candidate says Trump, Republicans will surprise in Minnesota Peterson faces fight of his career in deep-red Minnesota district Getting tight — the psychology of cancel culture MORE (D-Minn.), and drew criticism from conservatives, including radio talk show host Rush Limbaugh. "These folks, you know, they are not thinking clearly. They don't have any ability to be independently intelligent." Limbaugh said on his show. "You cannot take seriously the leadership of the Democrat Party, because these people are not thinking people."Freezing testicular tissue for transplantation to spermatogenesis-deficient domestic dogs. Freezing testicular tissue is the main procedure used to produce spermatogenesis-deficient domestic dogs. However, it is necessary to freeze and store these testicular tissues for a long time to successfully use them in transplantation. In this study, we investigated the effect of the storage method of testicular tissue for transplantation. Based on these results, we suggested a new storage method that can minimize damage caused by the freezing process. The testicular tissues were fixed with a mixture of glutaraldehyde
