adrienne barbeau, don francks regular on the wild wild west, and actress barbara feldon turn in a wonderful turn as merlin mortimer, the maid of honor. dont forget to check out the extensive gallery at the amazon kindle store of this book you cant afford to miss. massimo de vita was the son of pierlorenzo de vita. he drew many stories. he wrote also some stories, such as the ice sword saga starring mickey and goofy in a fantasy world threatened by the lord of the mists. another skillful artist was giovan battista carpi, who drew masterpieces such as paperino missione bob finger (donald duck mission moldfinger) and paperinik il diabolico vendicatore. he also wrote and drew some stories, such as the great parodies guerra e pace (war and peace) and zio paperone e il mistero dei candelabri (parody of les miserables by victor hugo). the klaw brothers are entertaining the gluttons by throwing each other into the grinders of furies. (this includes a few jabs at doofenshmirtz, the klaws live out of the home of furies, a couple yards from the surface. in 1955, scarpa created the paperino e il giovane quantino (paperin on the young quantum

#17-22) and another parody of a shakespeare tragedy: paperino e rosaura (by the duo antonino di bonaventura and angelo beltramelli). scarpa was considered the best parody writer among disney's european counterparts, and in particular, he wrote many parodies of disney classics, such as the fantasia story paperino e la scrofa dell'eterno padrone (by scarpa/ bottaro, 1958) and the classic paperino e pluto (by scarpa/ bottaro, 1965); the latter has a special place in this review. it is often claimed by the fans that the great parodies of carl barks were written by scarpa, but he was just an inker to barks. at the end of the 1960s, scarpa moved to london and worked with the british comics. after many years, he went back to italy in the early 1980s and started again to draw comics and also write; he wrote many stories for the italian disney comics.

 the three drones were played by four bilateral amputees (mark person as dewey, cheryl sparks and steven brown (hes also in the biker mover j.c.) as huey and larry whisenhunt as louie). that means they are either missing both arms or both legs. this was inspired by sideshow performer johnny eck. also, in italy, the drones are named after paperino, paperone and paperina (donald duck, uncle scrooge and daisy duck) because the names for huey, dewey and louie in italy are quim, qui and qua. therefore, calling them would have sounding like this; vieni qui, qui, which would be pretty weird, right  the three drones were played by four bilateral amputees (mark person as dewey, cheryl sparks and steven brown (hes also in the biker mover j.c.) as huey and larry whisenhunt as louie). that means they are either missing both arms or both legs. this was inspired by sideshow performer johnny eck. also, in italy, the drones are named after paperino, paperone and paperina (donald duck, uncle scrooge and daisy duck) because the names for huey, dewey and louie in italy are quim, qui and qua. a more complete version of topolino #7-13 (see above), with the stories of the 2nd italian great parody and the first disney story featuring credits, "mickey's inferno" was published in bambini#7-13 #10, #11 and #12, berlios ; and in sottolineato et roma #7, #8. the full version of "mickey's inferno" is included in the dvd topolino: 1-20, and in topolino: gratalinieri in salmo available only in italy. the story was translated by peg leg pete , one of the most important writers/artist of italy; works by rodolfo cimino and topolino were also translated by peg leg pete. "mickey's inferno" (and "topolino e i primi ricchi" the first italian great parody, the first disney story featuring credits) marked the beginning of a series of disney italian stories that was later continued by other writers, such as topolino: le tentacoli and topolino e il cangurio by michele calcagno , to mention only two. topolino: le tentacoli includes four stories (1-4 and 7-12), and topolino e il cangurio includes five stories (1-5, 7 and 8-12). there are seven more great parodies available in italy, but they haven't been translated (yet) by an italian writer: topolino e la saggezza (zio topolino and wisdom duck),
